Aris Drivas was born in Athens and after finishing his studies in Tourism Administration in Germany he returns to Greece to work as a tour guide on boats around the Greek islands. This led him to start his career as a yacht broker.

In 1972, he established in Piraeus “Aris Drivas Yachting”. At the beginning, the company was focused on providing the unique experience of a yacht charter. Over the years it has expanded and now provides expert advice and advocacy in building, managing and purchasing yachts.

Aris Drivas was one of the first yacht brokers from Greece who visited the USA and managed to start yachting in Greece with American clients. In 2014 he was awarded with the “Charter Yachting Hall of Fame” from the CYBA (USA).
