Bo Nylandsted Larsen

Senior Vice President Strategic Partnerships
Cruise Lines International Association (CLIA)

Bo has spent much of his career working within travel including 20 years with the airline industry followed by several years with Cruise Baltic and the Cruise Copenhagen Network. He managed both associations and established Cruise Baltic as an internationally recognized brand, which won a number of prestigious awards during his tenure.

In 2014 Bo became Global Director of Port Engagement and Business Development for CLIA, the world's largest cruise industry association with representation in North and South America, Europe, Asia and Australasia. In January 2015, Bo became CLIA's Vice-President for Port Engagement & European Executive Partner Members in Europe and in January 2017 he took on the role as Senior Vice President, Strategic Partnerships.

He has extensive knowledge of the port and destination sector and he is globally responsible for developing CLIA's strategic program of benefits and events for the Executive Partner community. Bo also manages CLIA's Global Port & Destination Committee.

He is a regular contributor to industry events and can also be seen moderating on various panels.
