

Speaker CV

Emad A. Hassan

Advisor to the Minister of Tourism, Egypt

Emad A. Hassan is currently an advisor to the Minister of Tourism in Egypt focusing on green transformation and other social and economic elements in support of Egypt's sustainable tourism agenda.

For the past year, he spearheaded Egypt's efforts to collaborate with his counterparts in Greece and Cyprus to revive the cruise tourism traffic to Egyptian Ports.

Prior to his tourism career, he brings 30 years of global energy and environmental consulting experience in several countries.

He holds a Master's degree from the University of California, Los Angeles.