

Speaker CV

George Tziallas (M.Sc.)

Secretary General for Tourism Policy and Development Ministry of Tourism

Civil Engineer (University of Patras, Greece) with a Master's Degree (M.Sc.) in Urban and Regional Planning (University of Tennessee at Knoxville, USA). He has a twenty-five year professional experience in management consulting, specializing in the fields of local and regional development, tourism development and planning, as well as in the management, monitoring and evaluation of EU Programmes and projects, in Greece and abroad. He has worked in senior positions in management consulting firms for more than twenty years, and was a member of the Board of Directors of the Hellenic Association of Management Consulting Firms (SESMA). He has been the project manager of large-scale technical assistance projects at national and EU level and has an excellent knowledge of the Greek public administration procedures, as well as of the EU Structural Funds context.