

Speaker CV

Pausanias Papageorgiou

General Secretary for Lifelong Learning and Youth

Pausanias Papageorgiou was born in 1978 and graduated Greek public school in 1996. He has a Bachelor degree in Law and a Bachelor degree of the department of Language, Literature and Media of Hamburg University.

He continued his studies in the Institute of Ancient Greek and Latin Literature, where he took his master's degree with honours. He took part in interdisciplinary research programmes and he acquired teaching experience in Germany.

Subject of his scientific research is «Law Literature» and especially «Grammatic interpretation and verbal formulation of juridical terminology and texts». Part of his research interests is also the relation between law and linguistic culture.

He has practical experience in the designing of programmes aiming at the integration in European culture of multilingual citizens with immigrant background. He had been consultant of the Minister of State and since November 2015 is the Secretary General for Lifelong Learning and Youth.